Concerns and Complaints Policy

St Clears Town Council is committed to dealing effectively with any concerns or complaints you may have about our service. We aim to clarify any issues about which you are not sure. If possible, we'll put right any mistakes we may have made.

We will provide any service you're entitled to which we have failed to deliver. If we got something wrong, we'll apologise and offer redress if appropriate. We also aim to learn from our mistakes and use the information we gain to improve our services.

When to use this policy

When you express your concerns or complain to us, we will usually respond in the way we explain below. However, sometimes you may have a statutory right of appeal so, rather than investigate your concern, we will explain to you how you can appeal.

Sometimes, you might be concerned about matters that are not decided by us and we will then advise you about how to make your concerns known.

Have you asked us yet?

If you are approaching us for a service for the first time, (e.g. reporting a faulty street light, requesting an appointment etc) then this policy doesn't apply.

You should first give us a chance to respond to your request. If you make a request for a service and then are not happy with our response, you will be able to make your concern known as we describe below.

Informal resolution

If possible, we believe it's best to deal with things straight away rather than try to sort them out later. If you have a concern, raise it with the Town Clerk or Town Council Member you're dealing with. He or she will try to resolve it for you there and then. If there are any lessons to learn from addressing your concern, then the Town Council's attention will be drawn to the matter.

If they can't help, they will explain why and you can then ask for a formal investigation.

How to express concern or complain formally

You can express your concern in any of the ways below.

- You can ask for a copy of our form from the person with whom you are already in contact. Tell them that you want us to deal with your concern formally.
- You can get in touch with the Town Clerk on 01267 237103
- You can e-mail us at clerk@stclearstowncouncil.co.uk

Concern and complaint forms are available from the Town Clerk.

Copies of this policy and the complaint form are available in Welsh and English.

Dealing with your concern

- We will formally acknowledge your concern within 5 days and let you know how we intend to deal with it.
- We will ask you to tell us how you would like us to communicate with you.
- We will deal with all concerns in an open and honest way.
- We will make sure that no one is disadvantaged because they have expressed a concern or made a complaint.

Normally, we will only be able to look at your concerns if you tell us about them within 6 months. This is because it's better to look into your concerns while the issues are still fresh in everyone's mind. We may exceptionally be able to look at concerns which are brought to our attention later than this. However, you will have to give us strong reasons why you have not been able to bring it to our attention earlier and we will need to have sufficient information about the issue to allow us to consider it properly.

If you're expressing a concern on behalf of somebody else, we'll need their agreement to you acting on their behalf.

What if there is more than one body involved?

If your complaint covers more than one body eg Town Council and County Council we will usually work with them to decide who should take a lead in dealing with your concerns. You will then be given the name of the person responsible for communicating with you while we consider your complaint. If the complaint is about a body working on our behalf we will look into your complaint ourselves and respond to you.

Investigation

We will tell you who we have asked to look into your concern or complaint.

If your concern is straightforward, we'll usually ask the Town Clerk/Town Mayor to look into it and get back to you. If it is more serious it will be referred to the Complaints Sub Committee.

We will set out to you our understanding of your concerns and ask you to confirm that we've got it right. We'll also ask you to tell us what outcome you're hoping for.

The person looking at your complaint will usually need to see the files we hold relevant to your complaint. If you don't want this to happen, it's important that you tell us.

If there is a simple solution to your problem, we may ask you if you're happy to accept this

We will aim to resolve concerns as quickly as possible and expect to deal with the vast majority within 20 working days.

If your complaint is more complex, we will:

- let you know within this time why we think it may take longer to investigate
- tell you how long we expect it to take.

- let you know where we have reached with the investigation, and
- give you regular updates, including telling you whether any developments might change our original estimate.

The person(s) investigating your concerns will aim first to establish the facts.

The extent of this investigation will depend on how complex and how serious the issues you have raised are. In complex cases, we will draw up an investigation plan. In some instances, we may ask to meet you to discuss your concerns. We might suggest mediation to try to resolve disputes.

We'll look at relevant evidence.

This could include files, notes of conversations, letters, e-mails or whatever may be relevant to your particular concern.

If necessary, we'll talk to the staff or others involved and look at our policies and guidance.

Outcome

If we investigate your complaint, we will let you know what we have found in keeping with your preferred form of communication.

This could be by letter or e-mail, for example. If necessary, we will produce a longer report.

We'll explain how and why we came to our conclusions. If we find that we got it wrong, we'll tell you what and why it happened. The mistake affected you.

If we find there is a fault in our systems or the way we do things, we'll tell you what it is and how we plan to change things to stop it happening again.

If we got it wrong, we will always apologise.

Redress

If we didn't provide a service you should have had, we'll aim to provide it now if that's possible.

If we didn't do something well, we'll aim to put it right.

If you have lost out as a result of a mistake on our part we'll try to put you back in the position you would have been in if we'd got it right.

Ombudsman

If we do not succeed in resolving your complaint, you may complain to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales.

The Ombudsman can look into your complaint if you believe that you personally, or the person on whose behalf you are complaining:

- have been treated unfairly or received a bad service through some failure on the part of the body providing it
- have been disadvantaged personally by maladministration or service failure.

The Ombudsman expects you to bring your concerns to our attention first and to give us a chance to put things right.

You can contact the Ombudsman by:

- writing to:

Learning lessons

We take your concerns and complaints seriously and try to learn from any mistakes we've made. Town Council considers a summary of all complaints quarterly as well as details of any serious complaints.

Where there is a need for change, we will develop an action plan setting out what we will do, who will do it and when we plan to do it by. We will let you know when changes we've promised have been made.

What if I need help?

The Town Clerk will aim to help you make your concerns known to us. If you need extra assistance, we will try to put you in touch with someone who can help.

What we expect from you?

In times of trouble or distress, some people may act out of character. There may have been upsetting or distressing circumstances leading up to a concern or a complaint. We do not view behaviour as unacceptable just because someone is forceful or determined. We accept that being persistent can be an advantage.

We believe that all complainants have the right to be heard, understood and respected. However, we also consider that our staff have the same rights. We, therefore, expect you to be polite and courteous in your dealings with us. We will not tolerate aggressive or abusive behaviour, unreasonable demands or unreasonable persistence. We have a separate policy to manage situations where we find that someone's actions are unacceptable.
